Bass in f°

The chart consists of a musical staff at the top with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (F major/C minor). Below the staff is a grid of 20 columns and 6 rows of circles representing finger positions. The circles are filled (black) for closed fingers, empty (white) for open fingers, and half-filled (black on the left) for half-covered fingers. The first row represents the thumb, the second and third rows represent the index, middle, and ring fingers, and the fourth, fifth, and sixth rows represent the little, middle, and ring fingers of the left hand.
